This Court made the following:

ORDER:

Pursuant to the order passed by this Court in W.P.M.P.No.17598 of 1997, dated 11-07-1997, the District Collector submitted a report, dated 12-10-2004, after due enquiry into the petitioner's request for providing necessary police protection for constructing houses in the plots bearing Nos.133 to 148 in Dr.Ambedkar Nagar Slum, Rail Nilayam, stating that all the plot owners have completed constructions in the allotted plots and are residing therein, and hence, there is no need for police protection for completing the construction. It is further stated in the report that the police protection is being provided to the petitioner-Society as and when requested for the purpose of construction and that constructions were completed and those who are not afforded to construct houses are residing in the allotted places by erecting huts.

In view of the above, no cause survives for adjudication in this writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. However, if any police protection is required, the petitioner-Society can approach the District Collector with necessary representation. No order as to costs.
